A: The Word of the Lord

C: Thanks be to God

The Psalmody (read responsively)

Psalm 23

¹ The Lord is my shepherd;

I shall not be in want.

² He makes me lie down in green pastures
and leads me beside still waters.

³ He revives my soul

and guides me along right pathways for his name's sake.

⁴ Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I shall fear
no evil;

for you are with me; your rod and your staff, they comfort me.

⁵ You spread a table before me in the presence of those who trouble me;
you have anointed my head with oil, and my cup is running over.

⁶ Surely your goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life,

and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

The Second Lesson

1 Peter 2:19-25

A: The Word of the Lord

C: Thanks be to God

The Verse (Cantor)

Text: Traditional Gradual for the Day

Alleluia! Then was the Lord Jesus known of the disciples in the breaking of bread.
Alleluia! I am the Good Shepherd and know my sheep and am known of mine.

Lutheran worship calls for more standing than in many other churches. Persons unable to stand during the service may remain seated. Also, persons who have difficulty walking may sit in the very front pew and receive communion there.

Holy Communion in our congregation is open to all baptized Christians. Lutherans believe and teach that in this sacrament Jesus Christ is truly present to heal our brokenness and empower our lives. Congregants come forward in the center aisle. They obtain an empty glass or, if preferred, a glass of white grape juice from an usher at the front of the aisle, and then stand in a semi-circle. Communicants consume the bread and wine upon receiving them, and wait for the blessing. Then they go to the side aisles, place the communion glasses in the baskets provided, and return to their seats.

The Scripture Readings for Sunday, May 22 are: Acts 7:55-60; Psalm 31:1-5, 15-16; 1 Peter 2:2-10 and John 14:1-14.

What is LBW? LBW stands for Lutheran Book of Worship, or the green hymnal in your pew rack. It will be your primary worship resource today.
