The Psalmody (read responsively)

Psalm 68

¹ Let God arise, and let his enemies be scattered;
let those who hate him flee before him.

² Let them vanish like smoke when the wind drives it away;
as the wax melts at the fire, so let the wicked perish at the presence of God.

³ But let the righteous be glad and rejoice before God;
let them also be merry and joyful.

⁴ Sing to God, sing praises to his name; exalt him who rides upon the heavens;
Yahweh is his name, rejoice before him!

⁵ Father of orphans, defender of widows,
God in his holy habitation!

⁶ God gives the solitary a home and brings forth prisoners into freedom;
but the rebels shall live in dry places.

⁷ O God, when you went forth before your people,
when you marched through the wilderness,

⁸ the earth shook, and the skies poured down rain,
at the presence of God, the God of Sinai,
at the presence of God, the God of Israel.

⁹ You sent a gracious rain, O God, upon your inheritance;
you refreshed the land when it was weary.

¹⁰ Your people found their home in it;
in your goodness, O God, you have made provision for the poor.

³² Let tribute be brought out of Egypt;

let Ethiopia stretch out her hands to God.

³³ Sing to God, O kingdoms of the earth;
sing praises to the Lord.

³⁴ He rides in the heavens, the ancient heavens;
he sends forth his voice, his mighty voice.

³⁵ Ascribe power to God;
his majesty is over Israel; his strength is in the skies.

The Second Lesson

1 Peter 4:12-14; 5:5-11

A: The Word of the Lord

C: Thanks be to God

The Verse (Choir)

Text: Traditional Gradual for the Day

Setting: Paul Bunjes (1914–98)

Alleluia! V. God reigneth over the heathen; God sitteth upon the throne of his holiness.

Alleluia! V. I will not leave you comfortless; I go, and I will come again to you, and your heart shall rejoice. Alleluia!

The Anthem (Choir)

On Christ's Ascension I Now Build

Text: Josua Wegelin (1604–40)

Melody: Es ist gewisslich an der Zeit, Wittenberg (1524)

Setting: Johannes Eccard (1553–1611)

On Christ's ascension I now build the hope of my salvation;

This hope alone has always stilled all doubt and
apprehension;

For where the head is, there
as well I know his
members are to dwell

When Christ will come and
call them.

Since Christ returned to claim his throne, great gifts for me obtaining,

My heart will rest in him
alone, no other rest
remaining;

For where my treasure went before, There all my thoughts will ever soar

To still their deepest yearning.

Oh, grant, dear Lord, this grace to me, recalling
your ascension,

That I may serve you faithfully, adorning your redemption;

And then, when all my days
will cease, let me depart
in joy and peace,

In answer to my pleading.

Lutheran worship calls for more standing than in many other churches. Persons unable to stand during the service may remain seated. Also, persons who have difficulty walking may sit in the very front pew and receive communion there.

The Scripture Readings for Sunday, June 12 are: Acts 2:1-21, Psalm 104, 1 Corinthians 12:3b-12, and John 20:19-23.

What is LBW? LBW stands for Lutheran Book of Worship, or the green hymnal in your pew rack. It will be your primary worship resource today.
