A: The Word of the Lord

C: Thanks be to God

The Psalmody (read responsively)

Psalms 119:33-40

³³ Teach me, O Lord, the way of your statutes,
and I shall keep it to the end.

³⁴ Give me understanding, and I shall keep your law;
I shall keep it with all my heart.

³⁵ Make me go in the path of your commandments,
for that is my desire.

³⁶ Incline my heart to your decrees
and not to unjust gain.

³⁷ Turn my eyes from watching what is worthless;
give me life in your ways.

³⁸ Fulfill your promise to your servant,
which you make to those who fear you.

³⁹ Turn away the reproach which I dread,
because your judgments are good.

⁴⁰ Behold, I long for your commandments;
in your righteousness preserve my life.

The Second Lesson

Romans 13:8-14

⁸ Owe no one anything, except to love one another; for the one who loves another has fulfilled the law. ⁹The commandments, 'You shall not commit adultery; You shall not murder; You shall not steal; You shall not covet'; and any other commandment, are summed up in this word, 'Love your neighbour as yourself.' ¹⁰Love does no wrong to a neighbour; therefore, love is the fulfilling of the law.

¹¹ Besides this, you know what time it is, how it is now the moment for you to wake from sleep. For salvation is nearer to us now than when we became believers; ¹²the night is far gone, the day is near. Let us then lay aside the works of darkness and put on the armour of light; ¹³let us live honourably as in the day, not in reveling and drunkenness, not in debauchery and licentiousness, not in quarrelling and jealousy.

¹⁴Instead, put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, to gratify its desires.

Lutheran worship calls for more standing than in many other churches. Persons unable to stand during the service may remain seated. Also, persons who have difficulty walking may sit in the very front pew and receive communion there.

The Scripture Readings for Sunday, September 11 are: Genesis 50:15-21; Psalm 103:1-13; Romans 14:1-12; and Matthew 18:21-35.

What is LBW? LBW stands for Lutheran Book of Worship, or the green hymnal in your pew rack. It will be your primary worship resource today.
